Policy IJNDB Use of Technology Resources

Purpose: to establish the basic structure for the use of technology resources in the district. The use of technology to support the curriculum and the instruc t onal process must be selected on the basis of its poten t al to enhance the direct implementa t on of district and state academic achievement standards. Technology must not be used to subs t tute for teaching, except when it is used as a delivery medium such as distance learning, web-based educa t onal approaches, etc.

Internet acceptable use policy (Internet and other electronic media and on-line connec t ons)

Technology is a vital part of educa t on and the curriculum of the district and the district's opera t ons. In an e f ort to promote learning and expand educa t onal resources for students, the district has made arrangements to provide worldwide electronic on-line connec t on access to students and sta f . While the Internet will be a primary on-line source, this policy and any implemen t ng administra t ve rule are intended to cover the use of the district's computer-related electronic on-line connec t ons, generally, as well as the district's computer hardware and so f ware. Reference to "Internet" as used herein will be construed as a term of convenience to cover the intended scope of this policy. The district's goal in providing this service is to promote educa t onal excellence by communica t on, innova t on and facilita t on in sharing of teaching and learning resources. Access to such "electronic highways" connec t ng millions of computer users on-

Rules governing use

The following guidelines for acceptable use will be applicable.

- Users are expected to employ appropriate net etiquette: profanity, vulgarity or abusive, inappropriate language is prohibited. Illegal activities are forbidden, including unauthorized access or "hacking" by any users.
- Users are not to reveal their personal address or phone number or that of other individuals, students or colleagues.
- Users are not to use another school's or individual's account without written permission from that individual.
- Vandalism will not be tolerated. Vandalism includes, but is not limited to, malicious damage to hardware, harm or destruction of software or the data of another user, and creating, uploading or downloading computer viruses.
- Users should consider all communications and information accessible via the network to be private property. All quotes, references and sources should be cited.
- Users are not to access inappropriate or restricted information or other information not directly related to the educational or staff use purposes for which access is being provided. Restricted information includes obscene, libelous, indecent, vulgar, profane or lewd materials; advertisements for products or services not permitted to minors by law; insulting, fighting and harassing words; and other materials which may cause a substantial disruption of the academic environment.
- Users should remain on the system only as long as necessary to complete their work so that other individuals will have equal opportunities to access the Internet. Users are not to disrupt, harass or annoy other users.
- The system is not to be utilized for financial or commercial gain or for personal use other than professional activities.

Penalties for improper use

An employee who violates the terms of this administrative rule will be subject to disciplinary action consistent with the nature of the offense, including cancellation of Internet privileges, suspension, or termination if circumstances so warrant. Students who violate the terms of this administrative rule or who otherwise misuse their access to the Internet also will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the district's Code of Student Conduct to include suspension or expulsion if circumstances so warrant. Violations of the laws of the United States or the State of South Carolina also may subject the user to criminal prosecution. If a user incurs unauthorized costs, the user, as well as the user's parents (if the user is a student), will be responsible for all such costs.
