

I am a former Wagener Elementary [yes, Busbee Elementary was formerly named Wagener Elementary], A.L. Corbett Middle; Wagener-Salley High student. I attended Clemson University for 3 semesters [School of Architecture] and then transferred to and graduated from Columbia College [Studio Art]. I took GT courses at Furman University and received my Masters' Degree from USC. I have been teaching ART 36 years [ART and Math 2 years in 2009/2010]. I taught reading and math in the RS-M Summer Migrant School [Hispanic Students] for 13 years until I became Co-Director [Visual Arts] of the Aiken County Summer Gifted and Talented acGATEWAY Program. After acGATEWAY downsized to one Director, I looked for another way to influence children. During the summers, I now love to travel overseas and learn about other cultures and the ARTS by spending time with foreign students and their families. However...what I teach them is more important than what I learn. I have the opportunity to impact regions by
