

: USC Aiken educates the next generation of professionals, so they have the broad understanding and critical capabilities necessary to succeed in their careers, enjoy a full life, and contribute as citizens and neighbors, building vibrant communities for decades to come.

Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges

USC Aiken pumps more than $350.7 million annually into the South Carolina economy, most of which benefits Aiken and Aiken County. (Estimate from the Darla Moore School of Business, 2021.)

Largest enrollment in USC Aiken history means more highly prepared citizens, professionals, and workforce.

31% of the students who start college at USC Aiken and graduate do so with
The average debt load of USC Aiken students is $19,415, which is far lower than the national average of $32,731 as of January 4, 2021, according to the Federal Reserve.

20,000 Alumni of record

6 men's teams and 6 women's teams consistently ranked among the nation's best.

15:1 creates opportunities for individualized learning including recipients of the Governor's Award for Excellence in Scientific Research, the Governor's Professor of the Year, and a Grammy-Award winning Artist-in-Residence