

and with generous support from MCEC!

The Lending Library provides resources that help students adjust to change as it relates to transitioning associated with a permanent change of station and family separation.

The Lending Library will contain the following resources free of charge to address the needs of several age groups:

- Growing, Learning and Understanding (GLU) kits designed for elementary age children,
- The "Big Fat Books" in the subject areas of English Language Arts, World History, Math, and Science, designed for middle school students,
- Chart Your Course for college readiness, and
- A variety of books for young children

Topics include Changes Choices, Coping Skills, Deployment, Emotions, Friendship, Separation, and Educational topics such as Literacy, Math, Science, and Exceptional Needs.

These resources are located at both the Aiken County Public School District Office as well as at Fort Gordon in the Child and Youth Service Office. To check out resources at Fort Gordon, please contact Melissa Barrickman, School Liaison Officer, at 706-791-7270.

For more information or to check out resources at the District Office, please contact Ms. Thomas at stthomas@acpsd.net or (803) 641-2428 ext. 12766.
